

Mental health toolkit for employers

The scale of the problem for employers

Mental health issues in the workforce cost UK employers up to £42 billion a year.

This includes:

£8 billion in sickness absence

£1 billion per year of sickness absence to the self employed

£8 billion in replacing staff who leave their jobs because of their mental health

The scale of the problem for employees

Three out of every five employees experience mental health issues because of work

31% of the UK workforce have been formally diagnosed with a mental health issue

Just 13% feel able to disclose a mental health issue to their line manager

91% of managers agree that what they do affects the wellbeing of their staff

But only 58% of employees believe their line manager is concerned about their wellbeing

Actions for employers for good mental health in the workplace

1. Make a commitment to mental health:

- Ensure senior level buy-in
- Be visible to employees (e.g. sign Time to Change)
- Have a senior Mental Health Champion
- Engage and consult employees about the approach

2. Build your approach:

- Understand the legal situation
- Assess employee needs
- Update policies, make plans to improve, and take action
- Co-produce a plan with employees

3. Create a positive culture:

- Support and value employees
- Promote healthy behaviour at work
- Reduce stress linked to work using HSE Stress Standards
- Review (and redesign if necessary) job roles
- Support social activities
- Communicate about wellbeing

4. Provide support and training:

- Share information freely
- Recognise importance of line managers
- Provide line manager training
- Build into induction
- Encourage dialogue at performance reviews

5. Manage mental health:

- Pro-actively tackle the stigma
- Openly discuss mental health
- Support employees with reducing stress (e.g. adopt HSE management standards)
- Signpost all information

6. Provide the right support:

- Train managers to be confident with sensitive conversations
- Be ready to make reasonable adjustments
- Provide a confidential support service

7. Help people to recover:

- Support employees back to work
- Make adjustments
- Use Fit for Work and Access to Work initiatives

8. Go further:

- Regularly evaluate your approach
- Share best practice with other employers
